

THREE ACRES COUNTRY HOUSE

ACCESS STATEMENT

Introduction

Three Acres Country House offers guest accommodation in six well appointed bedrooms on the edge of Exmoor National Park two miles from the thriving country town of Dulverton. We aim to make our guests' stay a relaxing and comfortable experience. The following statement is a summary of our provision, so if you have any specific questions or requirements please don't hesitate to call us and we will endeavour to help.

Pre-arrival

- There is a bus stop on the B3222 in the village which is serviced by routes 398 and 25B. Three Acres is a 5 minute walk from the main road, but if required we can pick up from the bus stop.
- Brushford village has a petrol station/general stores with limited opening times. Dulverton has more amenities including doctors, pharmacy, dentist and vets. Along with a visitors centre, library and a number of independent shops, galleries, restaurants, pubs and cafés.
- The main railway station is at Tiverton Parkway, 35 minutes by car. There is a taxi rank at the station.
- We have one local taxi – a six seater people carrier. We can make bookings for you.
- A large print copy of our brochure and map of how to find us can be provided by email or post by prior arrangement
- We have a website www.threeacrescountryhouse.co.uk to view in large text format click on “view” tool bar and select “text size” and chose largest.
- We can be contacted via the telephone 01398 323730 or email enquiries@threeacrescountryhouse.co.uk

Arrival and car parking facilities

- On arrival there is a sweeping driveway up to the property. At the top of the drive is a car park signpost directing drivers to the left.
- Parking is directly in front of the house. There are no marked parking bays but there is ample room for approximately 8 cars.
- The surface is gravel, level and flat.
- We have a Golden Retriever dog called Roger who has free range of the grounds but is not allowed into the hotel. He is very friendly and sees it as his job to greet guests on arrival.
- Whenever possible we come out to greet guests at the front door.
- We offer our assistance if guests need help getting from their car into the house.
- We offer to carry guests' luggage.

Main entrance and reception

- Entrance to the house is through a substantial porch leading to the front door. There is a step up to the porch of 12cm and a threshold of 3cm high. We have a temporary ramp available if requested (let us know in advance if you require this and we will make sure it is in situation for your arrival).
- The porch doors are glazed double doors; usually the right hand door is pinned open which gives a 73cm gateway. When both doors are opened the space is increased to 155cm wide. The porch floor is a flat tiled surface which leads to the front door.
- There is seating in the porch.
- The front door is unlocked and opens inwards; the opening is 95cm wide. There is a sign on the front door inviting guests in and to ring the bell on the stair post in the hallway for attention. This bell is 139cm high.
- On entry to the house the hallway is 2.5 metres wide by 7 metres long. The floor is level parquet woodblock.
- There is seating in the hallway.

Public areas – general internal

- The lounge leading to the bar, dining room and reception are all accessed off the main hallway. Doors to which are all 79cm wide.
- The hall and corridors are light and airy by day and adequately lit at night with table lamps. Additional ceiling lighting can be switched on if required.
- The stairway which is 102cm wide with a banister on the right hand side, leads up to 5 first floor guest bedrooms. The stairs are covered in a natural sea grass runner which is 71cm wide.
- There are 4 stairs up to a small corner landing, the staircase continues up to the right with a further 9 stairs up to a small landing. The stairs are 20cm high by 24cm deep.
- From the small landing there is a fire door (72cm wide) which is pinned back and closes automatically when the fire alarm is activated. This leads to the main landing which is 138cm wide, well lit with ceiling lights and is carpeted wall to wall in a natural Berber twist.

Public areas – WC

- There is a ground floor public WC also accessed off the hallway. The door to which is 74cm wide leads through to the hand basin which is 76cm high. A 72cm wide archway to the right leads to the toilet which is 48cm high. The floor is a flat level tiled surface.
